The Economic Impact of Allergan on the French Economy

The Pharmaceutical Industry in France

Allergan epitomizes the French biopharmaceutical industry’s success.

Allergan Supports the French Economy

- €293 million direct tax contribution, 2012–2016
- €243 million (0.11% of regional GDP) of local added value supported by purchases, investments, and employee consumption

Allergan Local Impact

- 10% of Total Paid Employment
- 30% of Industrial Salaried Employment
- 5.5% of Industrial added value
- 0.7% of Industrial salaried employment

Courbevoie, Hauts-de-Seine

Pringy, Haute Savoie

Allergan is Expanding Rapidly in France

- €326 million Contributed to French GDP in 2016
- €100 million in investments over the last 10 years

Allergan celebrates 40 successful years of business in France this year, and has marked this monumental achievement with an assessment of the company’s impact on the French economy.

- Our French facilities’ consolidated turnover has multiplied by 4.7 in ten years
- €49 million paid to local construction companies for the expansion of the Pringy facility
- Allergan sales have increased nearly 8 times over the past 10 years, while sales in France have tripled
- Allergan’s French employment grew by 50% between 2008 and 2017 (at a time when French overall industrial employment was declining)